

From: Bill Williams
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/3/02 1:24pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

This country was built upon the ability to spend time and effort to invent and develop new products and ideas. If this is not the case, we would not have patents, copyrights, etc. I believe we have provided enough time, effort and lawyers salaries , in developing the present settlement. This can drag out forever, as the breakup of Bell Telephone did in the last century. We do not need to duplicate that mistake in this century.

Bill Williams